Creative Guidelines for Announcement Copy

We'll work with you to create an underwriting announcement that meets your needs and adheres to designated FCC guidelines for public radio. Because of the unique relationship that 88.5 WFDD has with its listeners, we reserve the right to accept or reject any copy language.

All underwriting announcements are :15 in length including the following lead-in language "Support for WFDD comes from listeners and ...". The deadline for approved announcements is three business days prior to the start of your air schedule.

Your underwriting message may include:

- •A value-neutral description of your business or organization and products or services
- Your corporate philosophy or mission
- Brand and trade names and value-neutral product or service listings
- Non-promotional corporate slogan
- •General business location and length of time in business
- Web site address and/or telephone number or Facebook page

The announcement should be written in third person (no use of pronouns such as you, your, our, or we).

The announcement may not include:

- Promotional or value-laden adjectives (words like exclusive, expertise)
- Comparative or qualitative language (words like excellent, better, tasty, top, finest)
- Pricing information (mentions of discounts, sales, percent savings, interest rates)
- Calls to action (such as stop by, try, enjoy, visit us)
- •Inducements to buy (such as offering discount tickets, free checking)
- Music or jingles
